

CES Advanced Composite and Defense committed to be a sustainable, reliable, innovative solution partner and to produce environmentally friendly, innovative and advanced technology solutions that protect human life and make life easier primarily for the defense , aviation and ballistic industries.

- To work towards customers' full satisfaction, to be in constant cooperation with its customers and meet their expectations promptly and correctly, to be prepared for new investments to meet customer demands, to minimize internal process irregularities and returns.
- To apply our quality control system, which has been developed in line with the AS 9100, to continue complying with AS 9100, to meet the requirements of this standard and those of any relevant legislation and laws, and to continuously advance the Quality Management System.
- To maintain customer satisfaction by giving utmost emphasis on meeting the necessary design, product quality, pricing, on-time delivery and documentation requirements. To obtain measurable data within the quality process and utilize this data to enhance the processes in order to achieve an enduring Quality Management System and continuous customer satisfaction.
- To provide a healthy working environment for our staff where they can be content, to make training programs available and increase their perception of quality and personal skills.
- To maintain continuity of our relationship with our suppliers
- To continue being an environment and public conscious firm while adhering with the requirements of industry standards and relevant legislations
- Not to compromise any necessary investments that would enable the continuity of our Quality Management System.

General Manager

